

FCC,

Please don't cave in to demands by the Consumers Banking Association in regards to the no-call law used by the state of Wisconsin. Our state law is more restrictive than the federal law and those of us who live in Wisconsin like it that way. We enjoy our freedom from unwanted solicitation, especially from banks and other financial institutions. Their need to advertise is not nearly as important as our right to privacy.

Sincerely,

Randy Georgeson